

Notes From The Journey . . .

Fall has arrived. Cooler, wetter weather has once again come to the Palouse. The seasons always remind me that life is always defined by change. Whether it is our personal lives, or events in our the communities where faith offers us a perspective which helps to keep us grounded & oriented we live, or national and global affairs, the winds of change and transition always seem to be swirling. Sometimes it can all seem a bit (or more than a bit) overwhelming. And yet, through it all, the constant in the midst of all the change is the ongoing presence of God. Faith doesn't make the turmoil go away, but it offers us a perspective which helps to keep us grounded and oriented and thus better able to deal with whatever might come. And worshipping together in a community of faith offers a powerful way of staying in touch with that grounding, orienting faith. I hope you will join us this Sunday.

Roger Williams Symposium – Oct. 14th & 15th

The annual Roger Williams Symposium is a lecture series sponsored by the K-House, and features nationally and internationally renowned theologians and scholars. This year's lecturer will be Dr. Rita Nakashima Brock, speaking on the theme "Saving Paradise: A History of Christianity's Forgotten Love for This World." Dr. Brock is a member of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). She is an engaging speaker and her subject matter is extremely interesting. If you are interested in attending any or all of the lectures please contact the K-House (332-2611) ASAP.

ABC Evergreen Association 5th Annual Meeting – October 12th & 13th

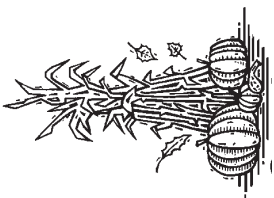

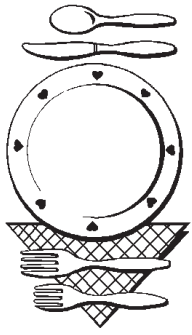

The Annual Meeting for the Evergreen Association (the regional American Baptist organization with whom we are affiliated) will be held in Seattle on October 12th and 13th. There is a $200 scholarship available to someone from our congregation to help offset travel and housing expenses. Please contact Roger ASAP if you are interested.

Harvest Dinner - Sunday, October 24th - 6 p.m.

The Fellowship Committee is sponsoring a potluck "Harvest" dinner and you are invited to come join us for a fun evening of food and fellowship. Bring your favorite fall food dishes.

And remember that fellowship events are a wonderful opportunity to invite friends and neighbors to join you.

Meet Our New Staff

We have two recent additions to our church staff. Janice Yeoman is our new Children's Church Coordinator. She takes the children downstairs during worship and offers them a lesson and works with them on a craft project. Her son, Christopher, is usually with her.

Josiah Stocker is our new accompanist. He plays the piano for us during worship and will be accompanying the choir whenever they sing. He is a student at the U of I.

Please welcome them to our church family.

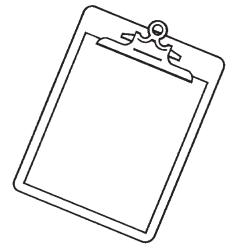

Faith Exploration Class - Sundays at 9:30 a.m.

We gather in the fellowship hall on Sunday mornings for an opportunity to expand our horizons and share together in a time of lively discussion. Our starting point is the NPR program "Speaking of Faith." This lively interview program features guests from a variety of faith traditions, speaking on a variety of topics and themes. The discussions which result are always interesting. Plan to join us.

Property Update

Barbara Hisel has taken on duties as the Property Committee chair, with help from Brent Bradberry and Frank Fleener. She currently has a whole host of clean-up and updating projects in the works or recently completed. There are updates posted regularly on the bulletin board across from the bathrooms. And Barb is always willing to answer any questions you might have. Thank you, Barb, for all your hard work.

Choir

The choir has started rehearsing again. They meet on the first and third Wednesdays of each month at 7 p.m., and sing in worship on the Sunday following the third Wednesday. Chris Talbott, Bruce Bradberry and Kim Stockton are sharing responsibility for director duties. If you are interested in participating, speak to one of them, or just show up on rehearsal nights.

Special Music

On the Sundays when the choir doesn't sing we try to offer some other form of special music. If you have any sort of musical talent, or have a suggestion for someone you would enjoy hearing, please contact Bruce Bradberry.

Personal Glimpses

Congratulations to Lois Bradberry, who has been declared to be cancer free.

Lois Leonard recently underwent successful cataract surgery on both eyes.

Dorothy Roberts was under the weather for several weeks and is now improving.

Alberta Hill broke her wrist this summer. She is just about ready to get rid of the wrist brace.

Viva Grove has wrist surgery and is still in a cast.

Maia Lassen-Purser is now a freshman at Cornish College of the Arts in Seattle, majoring in dance.

Elders & Deacons

There is a group within the life of our congregation who have been charged with responsibility for the spiritual care of the church. The Board of Elders and Deacons is made up of nine people who are elected to three-year terms. Their most visible role is when they offer the invitation and prayer at the communion table. Perhaps their most important role is the shepherding lists for which they are responsible. The Elder/Deacons are divided into teams of two and each team has a portion of the congregation on their list. Each team handles their list differently, but you might get an occasional card or phone call from your Elder/Deacon, just checking in to see how things are going. And if there is ever something happening in your life where some extra support would be helpful, please don't hesitate to contact your Elder/Deacon. The complete list is posted on the bulletin board across from the office. Or you can always call the church and ask.

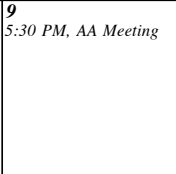

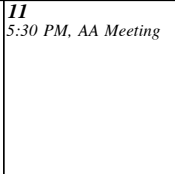

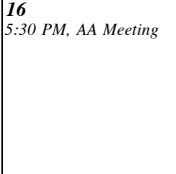

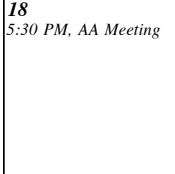

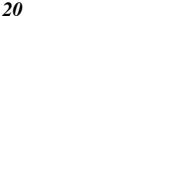

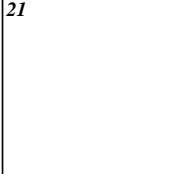

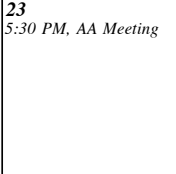

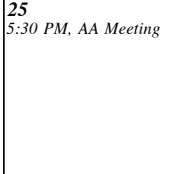

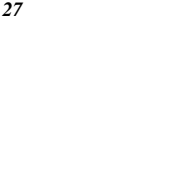

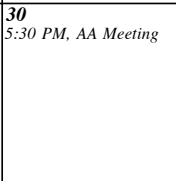

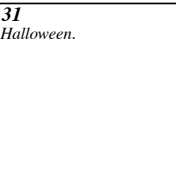

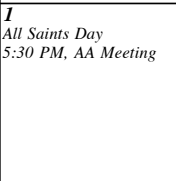

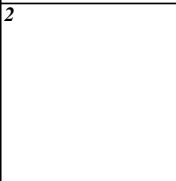

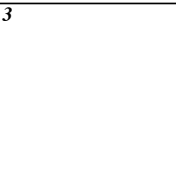

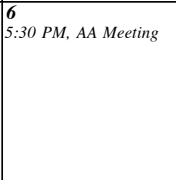

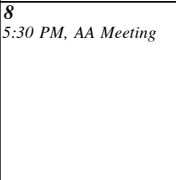

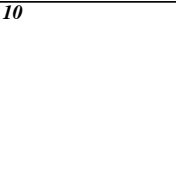

*It happens on Sunday evenings at 7:30 p.m. at Community Congregational UCC in Pullman.
are co-sponsoring a weekly worship experience they are calling Mosaic.
The Campus Christian Center and the K-House
It is a contemplative worship experience featuring beautiful, meaningful music, readings, & periods of silence.
